

Download Creating Art, Creating Income: A Women's Textile Workshop In Bangladesh

Anne Marie Burgoyne is the Managing Director, Social Innovation at the Emerson Collective where she manages the investment process for non-profit social entrepreneurs and innovators in a wide array of sectors, including education, immigration, social justice and the environment. IPS Executive Director, Dushni Weerakoon, was a panelist at the session discussing the 'Impact of Budget Proposals on Economy' at the event, 'Budget Highlights 2019: Tax Proposals and Impact on Business and the Economy'. Promoting Youth Employability, Dioïla, Mali, 2018-2019 BØRNEfonden is a Danish organisation founded in 1972, which works in four fields in Mali: education, child health, income-generating activities and children's development. Registration & Exhibition Open. An opportunity to network with fellow One Young World delegates ahead of the official start of the One Young World Summit.