

Download Flight From Famine : The Coming Of The Irish To Canada

The Great Famine (Irish: an Gorta Mór, [an? ?g???t??a m?o???]), or the Great Hunger, was a period in Ireland between 1845 and 1849 of mass starvation, disease, and emigration. With the most severely affected areas in the west and south of Ireland, where the Irish language was primarily spoken, the period was contemporaneously known ...Animal cruelty; Animal industrial complex; Animal testing; Blood libel; Blood sport; Carnism; Compulsory sterilization; Counter-jihad; Cultural genocide; DemocideAnd you must consider how unwelcome these Irish, in particular, were at the time. The Irish fleeing the famine was mostly poor, uneducated, sick with typhus and worst of all, Catholic.*FROM FAMINE YEARS TO THE PRESENT It was the cataclysmic Potato Famine of 1845-1851, one of the most severe disasters in Irish history, that initiated the greatest departure of Irish immigrants to the United States.
